TJUGOFJÄRDE BANDETS INNEHÅLL

		Sid.
1.	LJUNGGREN, S., The diffusion of uranium hexafluoride in some other gases	1– 46
2.	STOMBERG, R., The crystal and molecular structure of diperoxoaquo-ethylenediaminechromium (IV) monohydrate, $Cr(O_2)_2(H_2O)en$	47– 71
3.	RAPPE, C., Rearrangements of dibromoketones	73– 80
4.	BACKLUND, L. and BACKLUND, P., Whisker and columnar growth of sulphide on copper	81– 93
5.	RAPPE, C., NILSSON, T., CARLSSON, G.-B. and ANDERSSON, K., Favorsky rearrangements. V. The rearrangements of some tribromoketones	95–103
6.	RAPPE, C. and CARLSSON, G.-B., Favorsky rearrangements. VI. The rearrangements of tribromobutanones and of some mixed tribromo-chloro ketones. Evidence for a symmetric mechanism of the rearrangement	105–110
7.	STOMBERG, R., The crystal structure of oxodiperoxo-1,10-phenanthroline-chromium(VI), $[CrO(O_2)_2(C_{12}H_8N_2)]$	111–131
8.	AURIVILLIUS, B. and LUNDGREN, G., On the linking of ideal square Archimedean antiprisms. I	133–149
9.	AURIVILLIUS, K., The structural chemistry of inorganic mercury (II) compounds. Some aspects of the determination of the positions of "light" atoms in the presence of "heavy" atoms in crystal structures	151–187
10.	JOHANSSON, S., Techniques for calorimetric titrations in the semi-micro range. Part I. Apparatus. A sensitive, automatically recording quasi-isothermal calorimeter	189–209
11.	MAGNUSSON, S., A staining property of sulfated polysaccharides in starch gel electrophoresis	211–216
12.	MAGNUSSON, S., Fractionation of bovine prothrombin preparations by gradient chromatography on TEAE-cellulose columns	217–235
13.	ELMGREN, H., The macromolecular properties of sodium cellulose xanthate in dilute solution	237–282
14.	STOMBERG, R., On the structures of peroxochromates	283–302
15.	RAPPE, C. and ANDERSSON, K., Favorsky rearrangements. IX. The preparation and the geometrical configuration of some dibromo α,β-unsaturated acids	303–313
16.	RAPPE, C., Favorsky rearrangements. X. The structure and configuration of the products	315–320
17.	RAPPE, C., Halogenation of haloacetones	321–329
18.	AASA, R. and VÄNNGÅRD, T., ESR single crystal study of Fe^{3+} with large rhombic fine structure splitting	331–339
19.	JOHANSSON, G., Servo-operated microwave detector for gas chromatography	341–348
20.	MAGNUSSON, S., Preparation of highly purified bovine thrombin (E.C. 3.4.4.13) and determination of its N-terminal amino acid recidues	349–358
21.	MAGNUSSON, S. and STEELE, B., Carboxypeptidase A (E.C. 3.4.2.1) and B (E.C. 3.4.2.2) degradation of bovine prothrombin, thrombin (E.C. 3.4.4.13) and thrombino(glyco)peptides	359–366

22. Magnusson, S., Purification of prothrombin from human citrated plasma fraction II+III (Cohn's method 6) 367–374
23. Magnusson, S., Edman degradation of components of the bovine and human prothrombin-thrombin systems 375–381
24. Abrahamsson, S. and Larsson, K., A set of crystallographic programmes for the Saab D21 computer. 1. General data reduction . . . 383–387
25. Abrahamsson, S., A set of crystallographic programmes for the Saab D21 computer. 2. A parameter assembly programme for structure factors and least-squares calculation 389–394
26. Aleby, S., A set of crystallographic programmes for the Saab D21 computer. 3. Structure factor and least-squares programme 395–406
27. Abrahamsson, S., Nilsson, B. and Selin K., A set of crystallographic programmes for the Saab D21 computer. 5. Programmes for calculation of distances and angles, hydrogen positions, and molecular axes and planes 407–413
28. Agenäs, L.-B., The synthesis of seleno-substituted carboxylic acids by the action of sodium benzyl selenolate on lactones 415–423
29. Fredga, A. and Avalaht, I., Studies on synthetic growth substances. XX. Resolution and absolute configuration of 4-methoxy-phenoxy-propionic acid 425–430
30. Sillén, L. G., Oxidation state of Earth's ocean and atmosphere. I. A model calculation on earlier states. The myth of the "probiotic soup" 431–456
31. Bonner, F. J., The importance of the plateau in the moving boundary determination of thermal diffusion coefficients 457–462
32. Thalén, A. and Claeson, G., The preparation of 4-amino-1,2-dithiolane and a discussion of its ultra-violet spectrum 463–470
33. Myrbäck, K., Studies on yeast β-fructofuranosidase (invertase). XV. The binding of cupric ion by the enzyme 471–477
34. Åkerström, S., The N,N-dialkylthiocarbamates of copper and silver and some aspects of low polymer formation 479–490
35. Åkerström, S., (Di-n-butyl sulphido)silver nitrate 491–493
36. Åkerström, S., Thallium(I)N,N-dialkyldithiocarbamates and their reaction with corresponding thiuram disulphides 495–502
37. Åkerström, S. and Uhlin, A., Alkali metal N,N-dialkyldithiocarbamates 503–504
38. Åkerström, S., Silver(I)alkanethiolates 505–518
39. Jakobsen, H. J., Larsen, E. H., Madsen, P. and Lawesson, S.-O., Enamine chemistry. V. The introduction of the benzoyloxy group into some β-ketoesters and β-diketones. A new route to oxazoles 519–530
40. Arnek, R., A calorimetric and potentiometric study of the systems Cl^-–Hg^{2+} and Br^-–Hg^{2+} at 25°C in 3M(Na)ClO_4 medium 531–550
41. Kale, N. R., Purification of beef fibrinogen 551–571
42. Agenäs, L.-B., The synthesis of selenium analogues to pantoic acid . . 573–576
43. Fredga, A. and Plénat, F., Studies on synthetic growth substances. XXI. Resolution and absolute configuration of 2,5-dimethylphenoxy-propionic acid 577–581
